

WORLD ENVIRONMENT DAY 2018

PROGRAMME OF ACTIVITIES

CONTACT THE GEF SGP TEAM FOR FURTHER DETAILS:

467-6011 | 467-6012 | 467-6013

MON
JUNE
04

GENDER & CLIMATE CHANGE WORKSHOP (DAY 1)

UN HOUSE, 9 am - 5 pm

The Commonwealth Foundation and GEF SGP will be jointly hosting a 2-day exploratory discussion on the connection between Gender & Climate Change in the Caribbean. Its main objective is to determine how civic voices in climate change and gender policy processes can be strengthened.

TUES
JUNE
05

SGP LIVE: MORNIN' BARBADOS—CBC TELEVISION , 6:45 am

SGP's National Coordinator will be making a special presentation on CBC's Mornin' Barbados programme at approximately 6:45 a.m. to highlight impactful SGP projects.

GENDER & CLIMATE CHANGE WORKSHOP (DAY 2) : UN HOUSE, 9 am - 5 pm

SGP LAUNCH - THE SUBSTANCE ABUSE FOUNDATION'S RENEWABLE ENERGY FARM VERDUN HOUSE, 2:30pm

The key objectives of this project is to transition from traditional avenues of electricity usage to renewable sources, to create income streams to support the Foundation's educational and rehabilitation services and to provide educational and employment training for clients.

WED
JUNE
06

SGP GRANTEE LECTURE - BIOCULTURAL EDUCATION & RESEARCH PROGRAMME BARBADOS COMMUNITY COLLEGE, 7 pm

This organisation focuses on the promotion of plant conservation with an emphasis on plants that are considered valuable in traditional medicine. The lecture entitled "Can Plants Replace Plastic?" will assess the dependency on plastics in Barbados and provide examples of local plants alternatives to plastic utilization.

THUR
JUNE
07

SGP GRANTEE TOUR: BAIRD'S VILLAGE AQUAPONIC FARM, 3 - 6 pm

Join us in the rural setting of Baird' Village, St. George to explore the dynamics of Solar Powered Aquaponics Community Farm in action, receive guided tours and participate in production processes.

FRI
JUNE
08

CORALL—BARBADOS CORAL REEF SYMPOSIUM LLOYD ERSKINE SANDIFORD CENTRE, 9 am - 5pm

This organization's mission is to foster the conservation and restoration of coral reef ecosystems in Barbados. The Symposium with funding support from SGP will feature an art exhibition and a variety of speakers including Dr. David Vaughan from Mote Marine Laboratory .

